

Dentons named among top three law firm employers in the Czech Republic

May 4, 2021

Prague —For the second year in a row, Dentons was named among the Top three law firm employers in an annual ranking of the most desirable employers in the Czech Republic - Top Zaměstnavatelé 2021 (Top Employers 2021).

The ranking is derived from an anonymous survey carried out by the Asociace studentů a absolventů (Association of Students and Graduates) and realized in cooperation with the research agency GFK, universities, student organizations and corporate partners. More than 12,000 students and graduates from Czech universities shared their opinion in this year's online survey.

“We're very pleased by this award and are simply delighted that students are interested in building their career with us. We see undergraduates as the future of our Firm, which is why we put many resources into their development whilst still in university and later as associates. We provide our new recruits with opportunities to grow and develop by leveraging meaningful training and a collaborative and supportive work environment,” said Martina Tintěrová, Czech Republic Talent Manager.
