

Dentons lawyers recognized by International Tax Review as 2018 Tax Controversy Leaders

August 31, 2018

Dentons is proud to congratulate 15 lawyers from the Firm's global Tax practice, who have been recognized in the Tax Controversy Leaders 2018 client guide by International Tax Review, a leading international tax publication. Tax Controversy Leaders is a guide to the leading tax dispute resolution lawyers and advisers in the world, covering 60 jurisdictions. Inclusion in the ranking is based on nominations as well as client and peer feedback. Dentons lawyers recognized this year include:

Brazil

- Antonio Carlos Guidoni Filho

Colombia

- Camilo Cortes

Canada

- Cheryl Gibson
- Jihad Haymour
- Carman McNary
- Joel Nitikman

France

- Sandra Hazan

Germany

- Stephan Busch

Netherlands

- Paul Halprin

Poland

- Karina Furga-Dąbrowska

Russia

- Boris Bruk
- Dzhangar Dzhalchinov
- Igor Schikow

Ukraine

- Igor Davydenko

US

- Jeffrey Erney

These rankings highlight the strength of Dentons' national and global Tax teams, and demonstrate that Dentons' Tax group is particularly well-suited to assist multinational companies facing substantial global tax disputes across numerous countries, tax regimes and dispute resolution procedures.
