

Dentons' Jesús Mardomingo ranked in Chambers FinTech 2020

January 23, 2020

The newest Chambers FinTech 2020, a comprehensive guide to leading FinTech professionals across the world, has granted Dentons' Madrid-based partner Jesús Mardomingo a high Band 2 individual ranking.

According to the Chambers and Partners research: "Jesús Mardomingo is lauded by peers for his prowess in financial regulatory matters, and in Spain heads Dentons' banking and finance, and dedicated FinTech practices. He is an expert on EU regulatory issues in the financial sector. Mardomingo brings strong cross-border capabilities, and has considerable experience in assisting banks and financial institutions in strategic joint ventures and in advising on the regulatory framework around e-payments and cryptocurrencies."

Additionally to Jesús Mardomingo's individual ranking, Dentons was recognized for its strong position in the FinTech legal field in Spain, having received a Band 2 firm ranking. Particularly, the 2020 edition of the guide highlighted that Dentons' "FinTech practice is assisting some of the most innovative companies in the country with cutting-edge products in the realm of digital banking and e-payment."

The Chambers FinTech ranking is based on research involving in-depth interviews with innovators and experts worldwide. This year's edition of the guide covers 37 jurisdictions, compared to 22 last year, and includes – for the first time – most European jurisdictions along North America, Latin America, Asia-Pacific, Africa and Middle East. FinTech 2020 features selected types of professional services, including Legal, Venture Capital, Consulting and Public Relations.
