

Dentons' global Tax practice recognized by Chambers Global

March 2, 2020

Dentons is pleased to announce that its global Tax practice is ranked for the first time by Chambers Global, with a Band 4 ranking. The directory highlights direct client feedback praising the "cross-border co-operation of Dentons' lawyers across jurisdictions" and noting that the Tax team always thinks outside the box.

This ranking demonstrates the huge development that Dentons' global Tax practice has made in recent years. With now more than 300 lawyers and professionals in over 60 locations worldwide, the team can serve clients wherever needed in all relevant areas of tax law.

Dentons has been ranked in a total of 121 areas in the latest Chambers Global, including eight global practice rankings.

Chambers is an independent legal directory that conducts in-depth interviews, reviews submissions from law firms and collects feedback from clients to identify and rank the most outstanding law firms and lawyers.

For more details on Dentons' rankings please check the Chambers website.