Overview

Winifred is a senior partner with nearly 40 years experience with the Firm, including as managing partner from 1999 to 2004.

Before joining, she worked with the Papua New Guinea Public Service and served a term as Commissioner of the Public Service Commission. She therefore brings invaluable familiarity with the Papua New Guinea's government and legal framework. With her understanding of the environment within which government organisations work in PNG, Winifred is frequently asked to advise on government related corporate matters.

Winifred has extensive business experience and broad community knowledge of Papua New Guinea, and serves on a number of company boards as a non-executive director and on the community based organisations listed below.
