A premier national government affairs network

DENTONS 50

Grow | Protect | Operate | Finance

Dentons 50 connects clients with public policy strategists in statehouses across the United States.

Our state government affairs team represent clients before state governments to navigate complex and political issues. The successful management of multistate public policy issues begins with our nationwide presence through Dentons 50.

Dentons 50, a full-service, 50-state public policy and advocacy network, offers unrivaled reach and depth in state capitols across the nation for clients in all industry sectors. Dentons 50 is a comprehensive, centralized resource for businesses with complex, multistate policy matters to include, but not limited to, legislative and regulatory issues as well as procurement related matters.

Built on Dentons' already-strong state and local government affairs practices, and comprised of professionals with local expertise managing policy issues in centers of power at the state and local levels, Dentons 50 leverages top-tier government and public affairs resources to offer project management and on-the-ground support of multistate public policy and advocacy matters. Dentons 50 is a force multiplier—offering clients the ability to quickly mobilize, organize and activate public policy campaigns, and providing bespoke nationwide legislative tracking; visibility and relationship-building in new markets, real-time analysis of state, federal and local issues, and developing and executing on procurement advocacy strategies.

The Dentons 50 network allows clients to be connected with knowledgeable policy and advocacy professionals in all 50 states. Dentons 50 partners are equipped with the expertise and insight needed to engage in the policy and regulation priorities at a moment's notice. Dentons 50 serves as an intel aggregator and can monitor the latest developments while providing intimate knowledge that can only come from seasoned professionals on the ground in every state. Dentons 50 provides a plug-and-play nationwide advocacy system.

Until now, no single professional services firm has been able to provide a full-service, 50-state, public policy and advocacy solution for clients. The broad array of public policy challenges faced by national and global businesses—challenges that often cross state lines and become national in scope—is unprecedented.
