

Dentons' lawyers in our Frankfurt and Berlin offices are highly specialized in your energy business. Our team works at the forefront of most recent legal and political developments and advises you, as a high-caliber client, in your transactional, regulatory and day-to-day corporate practice.

At the crossroads of technology, business and law, you can receive specialist advice in the following areas:

- Corporate / M&A / privatizations
- Renewable energies/combined heat and power generation
- Energy contracts
- Power projects
- Pipeline projects
- Project and corporate finance
- Energy-related competition law and merger controls
- Power station permission procedures and related construction law
- Grid operation (gas/electricity)

Our advisory spectrum covers the entire life cycle of a project in the energy business. We combine our expertise in Regulatory and Public Law, Project Finance, Corporate and Tax to work on a variety of different matters. This includes questions of operating networks as well as the drawing up of energy supply and grid access agreements. In addition we advise on all questions of corporate and tax law, and we offer strategic advice for politically sensitive transactions and projects.

We deliver precise and tailor-made solutions at the highest possible standards of services, integrity and professionalism. Each matter is handled by an experienced and carefully-tailored team of dedicated lawyers according to your personal needs. We understand your business in the energy sector and are familiar with challenges and pitfalls that might arise in this industry.

Our team advises clients at all links to the chain of economic value-added in the energy sector: renewables specialists, energy suppliers, energy trading companies, power plant operators, constructors, large customers, financial investors and financial institutions, strategic investors, and industrial clients. Dentons lawyers work for more than 40 governments on energy-market reform and major project procurement, which adds a depth of perspective rare amongst law firms.
