Primary Details

Date: Tuesday, February 11, 2020 Format: Semi-closed primary Total Delegates: 24

Delegate Breakdown

Туре	Delegates	Alternatives
Congressional District 1	8	0
Congressional District 2	8	0
Automatic PLEOs (unpledged)	9	n/a
Pledged PLEOs	3	0
At-Large Delegates	5	2
Total pledged: 24 Total unpledged: 9

How are delegates allocated?

- 16 district delegates are pledged proportionally based on the primary results in both congressional districts
- 8 delegates (5 At-Large and 3 pledged PLEOs) are pledged to contenders based on the statewide primary vote
- 9 unpledged PLEO delegates will go to the DNC officially as unpledged

Current Polling in sugests no candidate will win a majority of the delegates

*RealClearPolitics average 2/6/2020

Past Winners

2016 GOP: Donald Trump (35.3%) 2016 Dem: Bernie Sanders (60.4%) 2012 GOP: Mitt Romney (39.2%) 2012 Dem: Barack Obama (80.9%) 2008 GOP: John McCain (37%)

2008 Dem: Hillary Clinton (39%)

Bold indicates that candidate went on to win their party's nomination.

Delegate Count Chart via the Associated Press Last updated: 2/6 | Deligates remaining: 3,979

Primary Calendar

	February	Super Tuesday	March 4–31	April	May	June
Contests	4	16	13	11	7	6
Delegates	155	1,357	1,091	854	300	222
Delegates %	3.9%	34.1%	27.4%	21.5%	7.5%	5.6%
Cumulative %	3.9%	38.0%	65.4%	86.9%	94.4%	100%

From 1952 to 1988, the person elected president had always carried the NH primary, but Bill Clinton broke the pattern in 1992, as did George W. Bush in 2000, and Barack Obama in 2008.