

Dentons Smart Cities & Connected Communities Think Tank and Keystone Policy Center

大成 DENTONS

A Key Conversation: Recognizing the Men and Women Who Restore and Reinforce North America's Electricity Systems in This New Age of Resilience

October 12, 2022

11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. EDT

Welcome: Paula Gold-Williams, Chair of the Board, Keystone Policy Center

Moderator: Clint Vince, US Energy Practice Chair, Global Energy Sector Co-Chair for the US Region, and Smart Cities & Connected Communities Think Tank Co-Chair, Dentons

Steve Mitnick
Executive Editor,
*Public Utilities
Fortnightly*

Guest

Steve Mitnick is executive editor of Public Utilities Fortnightly (PUF) and president of its parent company Lines Up, Inc., based in Arlington, Virginia. He also authors the weekly digital magazine PUF's Where's Energy.

He previously was a member of the leadership teams of energy consulting practices at McKinsey & Co., Marsh & McLennan, and PHB/Hagler Bailly. Before that he served as president of the transmission developer Conjunction LLC, and chief energy advisor to the Governor of New York.

His book, Lines Down: How We Pay, Use, Value Grid Electricity Amid the Storm, was published in June 2013. His book, Women Leading Utilities, the Pioneers and Path to Today and Tomorrow, was published in May 2021. His book, Lewis Latimer, The First Hidden Figure, was published in November 2020. His book about the military veterans in the utilities industry, Front Lines to Power Lines, was published in September 2021. He is presently completing his latest book, Heroes of the Storms.

He has testified before utility regulatory commissions of six states, the District of Columbia, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, and in Canada. Early in his career, he was a member of the faculty of Georgetown University and taught undergraduate microeconomics, macroeconomics and statistics. He has an MBA from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, and two BS degrees from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, in physics and in history/political science.

Rachel Moore
Senior Staff Writer,
*Public Utilities
Fortnightly*

Rachel Moore is Senior Staff Writer of Public Utilities Fortnightly. She writes regularly for the magazine and for PUF's book productions. She co-authors with Steve Mitnick PUF's recent book on military veterans in the utilities industry, Front Lines to Power Lines. She also co-authors PUF's upcoming book on storm restorations, Heroes of the Storms.

Rachel received a Master of Fine Arts, Creative Writing from Queen's University of Charlotte and a Bachelor of Arts, English Literature and Language, Creative Writing at Virginia Tech.

Rachel was the recipient of "Ut Prosim" Distinguished Service Award. Issued by Virginia Tech Department of English, May 2018.

Fortnightly

Guest

