Brasília, Brazil's capital, has a strategic role being the home of the Nation's Supreme and Superior Courts, as well as National Congress and Agencies of the government. The city also shelters more than 120 Embassies.

Our professionals in Brasília, through our strategic alliance with Vella Pugliese Buosi e Guidoni Advogados, are prepared to deal with the nation's authorities in various fields, including extensive experience with competition and foreign trade agencies, and also Transportation, Telecommunications and Energy Agencies.

Our Brasília office has also experience with the Supreme and Superior Courts, with knowledge of the Courts' dynamic and past rulings of the Justices. More recently, our team has been developing government relations in the law making process before the executive and the legislative Branches.

Our professionals also support the firm's Litigation, Tax, Competition, Commercial Defense, Audit Office and Infrastructure practices before the related authorities in Brasília.
