Why Dentons?

The world's largest global law firm

Dentons has more people in more places than any of our competitors. We represent clients' interests in foreign markets and help them grow, protect, operate and finance their operations with on-the-ground, local knowledge and industry market intelligence, informed by international best practice.

Polycentric law firm

Dentons has no single headquarters or dominant national culture. Our polycentric, in-and-of-the-community approach means we are always a local firm as well as a global firm. We operate without borders, delivering international best practice, in the local context.

Beyond legal advice

Guided by our purpose to offer more than just legal insight, Dentons focuses on delivering commercial business solutions outside of typical legal disciplines. For example, we started multidisciplinary advisory firm Dentons Global Advisors, founded Nextlaw Referral Network, and own a stake in Libryo, a regulatory compliance software maker.

Expertise in Saudi Arabia

Our on-the-ground advisors provide a nuanced understanding of the local market combined with deep knowledge of the legal framework of Saudi Arabia. We also provide vast experience in representing foreign investors' interests in the Kingdom. Our clients range from multinational, Global 1000, and Fortune 500 enterprises to early-stage emerging companies and start-ups. All of our core team are based on-the-ground in Saudi Arabia and are highly responsive and accessible. Our lawyers have many years of combined experience in the Kingdom as well as expertise gained in leading international markets.

The "go-to" firm in Saudi Arabia

We are highly regarded as the "go-to" firm in Saudi Arabia, with offices in Riyadh and Jeddah and we are a law firm partner that truly understands the strategic framework and objectives of Vision 2030. We have advised on matters in Saudi Arabia for more than 40 years. Our fully integrated legal team comprises both Western and Saudi Arabian qualified lawyers with broad experience of advising Saudi government ministries, state-owned entities and leading Saudi corporates, and possesses deep knowledge of the key political, economic, regulatory and legal issues in the Kingdom.

Local and international law advice

Unlike many international law firms, our offices in the Middle East provide advice on both international and local law matters through a seamless, one-stop shop service. This significantly reduces execution risk and cost compared to some of our competitors who have to tie up with local firms for the relevant local law advice. We provide our clients with both the world-class international expertise of the largest law firm in the world as well as the ability to provide expert legal opinions on questions of local law.

Dentons in Saudi Arabia

Dentons in Saudi Arabia operates through offices in Riyadh and Jeddah in association with The Law Firm of Wael A. Alissa. Dentons has decades of experience serving local and international clients in the Kingdom and the wider Middle East, having been active in the region since the 1930s and in Saudi Arabia since 2007.

Unlike many international law firms in Saudi Arabia, we are fused together as one team, and are fully integrated with the global Dentons network. We are also one of the few international firms to have a presence in Jeddah, a major commercial hub in the Middle East.

With a team of experienced international and Saudi Arabian educated and qualified lawyers, we provide local and international legal services to our clients in both the private and public sectors. We are known for our ability to anticipate the potential issues and risks that come with any new business opportunity, as well as our proactiveness in developing creative solutions to enable our clients to meet their strategic objectives.

Our full suite of capabilities includes:

- Banking and Finance / Project Finance
- Corporate and Commercial / Mergers and Acquisitions / Joint Ventures
- Company Formation / IPOs
- Employment
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Public Procurement
- Real Estate
- Restructuring and Insolvency
- Technology, Media and Telecommunications

Saudization

Part of our commitment to the Kingdom and our communities in Riyadh and Jeddah includes our initiatives to develop, train, promote and cultivate Saudi Arabian talent. We are proud that more than half of our local team in Riyadh and Jeddah are Saudi nationals, and we are committed to Saudization and developing Saudi nationals with our Middle East Trainee Programme, Paralegal Programme and Reverse Secondments. Females also represent almost 50% of our legal practice in Saudi Arabia - numbers that we are committed to increasing as we implement our growth plans in Saudi Arabia in the next couple of years.

Locations

We are uniquely placed as one of the few international law firms to have a presence in both Riyadh and Jeddah.

People

We have a team of 25 experienced international and Saudi Arabian educated and qualified lawyers and are proud that half of all our lawyers are female.

Cultural fluency

We bring a wealth of local expertise and resources at all levels and can communicate with local officials in their own language. Many of our legal staff are fluent in English, Arabic, French, Spanish and other languages. We also employ full-time translators in house.
