Selected experience in the Netherlands

Low Carbon

Advising a privately-owned UK investment and asset management company, investing in large-scale renewable energy projects, with their strategic investment in a groundbreaking joint venture company specializing in the development and operation of battery storage systems. As a follow up of this transaction, we have recently advised Low Carbon on the sale of the joint venture.

Lion Storage and a consortium of banks

Representing Lion Storage and a consortium of eight lenders in a significant capital raise to fund the construction of a 368MW utility-scale battery storage asset in the Netherlands. Additionally, we advised on the regulatory framework governing utility-scale battery storage projects in the Netherlands, as well as on the market access service agreement.

GIGA Storage

Advising on GIGA Leopard, one of the largest battery developments in Europe, which sits on the site of the former Aldel aluminum smelter in the Dutch coastal city of Farmsum, including advising on the acquisition of the closed distribution system (CDS, a private power network) formerly owned by Aldel, and on the first ATR85 grid connection agreement in the Netherlands.

Macquarie Capital and ABN AMRO

Assisting Macquarie and ABN Amro on the financing and corporate restructuring of the Dispatch group, in connection with the development of a stand-alone Battery Energy Storage System (BESS). The project is being developed in partnership with EPICo², a sustainable infrastructure fund backed by European institutional investors.

TETEF (a Triodos Fund) and iWell

Assisting with the project financing (for the construction) of a large battery developments in the Netherlands – the iWell Mega Cube, a unique project that makes it possible to balance the supply and demand for green energy.

GIGA Storage

Advising on the development and financing of numerous battery energy storage projects, including GIGA Rhino, GIGA Buffalo, GIGA Giraffe, and GIGA Lion.
